See you in Sopot

for the weekend

culinary Sopot in 2 days

Day 1

Breakfast at Meduza

Meduza – an iconic spot in Sopot with a history dating back to the 1960s. They serve signature breakfasts and homemade baked goods. A family- and pet-friendly venue. Bright, cozy interior filled with live greenery and wooden accents creates a warm, atmospheric vibe.

A walk through the Northern Park

Northern Park extends from the Grand Hotel to the Swelina Stream—a natural border with Gdynia. It is an ideal spot for active recreation and relaxation, perfect for walkers, cyclists, and rollerbladers alike.

Icons of Sopot

Visit the Sopot Pier and breathe in the fresh sea air, rich in iodine. Nearby, you will find the lighthouse offering a beautiful view of the Bay of Gdańsk and the city center. It is one of the best viewpoints in Sopot.

Lunch at Do Brzegu with a sea view

Do Brzegu is a beachside restaurant featuring a unique interior with a nautical soul and a view of the longest wooden pier in Europe. Enjoy extraordinary international dishes with Polish flavors, crafted from local ingredients.

What's for dessert? Waffles, of course!

Waffles taste just as delicious at any time of year! With powdered sugar? Or perhaps with whipped cream and fruits? You decide! Grab a waffle and a hot coffee to give you energy for your walk along the Seaside Spa Trail.

Seaside Spa Trail

This picturesque walking route offers numerous green areas, recreational spots, children's playgrounds, inhalation mushrooms, and brine towers. Walking along this trail, you will discover Sopot's characteristic spa architecture.

Bar Przystań

Take a break for dinner at Sopot's iconic restaurant, Bar Przystań, where you can taste the famous fisherman's soup, herring tartare, garlic toast, and other fish dishes that flavor you will remember for a long time.

Fishermen's Harbor

After a culinary feast at Bar Przystań, drop by the Sopot fishermen's harbor and take a photo by a fishing boat—it is one of the most photogenic spots in Sopot.

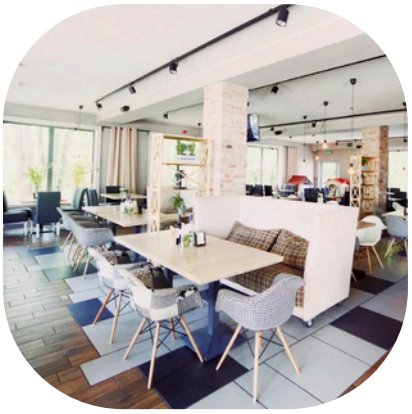

Limitless saunas by Autopay

Need a moment of relaxation? Let’s choose saunas, ice baths, or a sauna session. It is a perfect place to fully recharge and regain your strength after a tough week at work.

Day 2

Breakfast at Pomarańczowa Plaża

Pomarańczowa Plaża is a restaurant located right by the beach, near the Fishermen's Harbor. Here, you can enjoy delicious food and feel like at home. The cozy interior, wide selection of breakfast dishes, and relaxed, casual atmosphere make it a must-visit spot.

Forest Spa Trail

After a breakfast, take a walk through the Tri-City Landscape Park. It's a great opportunity to see Łysa Góra, the legendary Forest Opera, and Wzniesienie Strzeleckie - one of the most beautiful forest viewpoints in Sopot.

L’Entre Villes

How about lunch at a restaurant recommended by the Michelin Guide? L’Entre Villes is housed in a restored, over 100-year-old Sopot villa, where exceptional cuisine and the highest standard of service meet wonderful hospitality.

Visit at the State Gallery of Art

Sopot is also a thriving center of culture and art. You will discover this during a visit to the State Gallery of Art. Each year, the gallery holds around twenty-five exhibitions of contemporary and traditional art, showcasing a wide variety of artistic phenomena.

What's for dessert?

Delicious cake! Drop by Mamma Mia Cafe. Located on the third floor of the Spa House (Dom Zdrojowy), it offers a beautiful view of the Bay of Gdańsk. Coffee and dessert with a view like this taste exquisite!

Grand Hotel

After a delicious dessert, be sure to see the legendary Grand Hotel, which has hosted world-class icons such as Marlene Dietrich, Greta Garbo, Charles de Gaulle, and Shakira within its beautiful interiors.

Goyki 3 Art Inkubator

Visit one of the most beautiful villas in Sopot—Villa Jüncke. Today, it houses a thriving Sopot cultural institution: Goyki 3 Art Inkubator. The property features a beautiful, historic park.

Piaskownica

End your day at the cozy and charming restaurant Piaskownica, located right by the beach. Here, you can enjoy Polish dishes, fresh fish, and seafood. It is a lively spot that attracts crowds thanks to its beautiful decor and homely atmosphere.

3City Distillery

In the evening, head to 3City Distillery, an artisanal gin distillery located in the heart of Sopot, in the old luggage storage building by the Sopot train station. In a friendly atmosphere, you can try gin-based cocktails.
